

LEWIS BROWNE ON TOUR

Author Passes Through Portland

12/15 on Way to Orient. 1932

Lewis Browne, author and orator, passed through Portland last week, with Mrs. Browne, en route to Vancouver, B. C.,

Lewis Browne.

where they boarded a steamer for a six months' tour around the world. Mr. and Mrs. Browne, whose home is in Santa Monica, Cal., visited for a few hours in Portland with Mr. Browne's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Browne, 231 Hooker street. Mr. Browne, who is gathering material for further literary works, will lecture in universities of Japan and China and will visit in India with Gandhi, according to advance arrangements. His itinerary includes also the Philippines, Bali, Java, Burma, Palestine, Egypt, Italy, Germany, France and England. Mr. Browne's most recent book, "Blessed Spinoza," made its appearance recently.